Secretary Rebecca Rice

In Attendance

Jane Brenters	Marcy Morantz	Rebecca Rice	Natasha Powell
Kelly Parker	Brianna Graham	Nikki Webber	Lina Lopez
Jennifer Reed-Askey			Melinda Urbanawiz

Principals Update

Mr. Parker gave update regarding school budget. The district has allocated a $27 decrease per student for next year. Despite this, additional budget was provided ($65k from 2018 and $70k from 2019) and he broke down how it will be spent, including a third counselor, an additional ½ Admin Assistant (part-time person), and professional learning and rebranding. He unveiled the new logo and new color scheme. School Governance Counsel Representatives nominated are Wendy Hemp and Christopher Jocham. He would like to see 15% of parents vote.

Teacher Representative Report

No teacher representative update reported.

New Business

- Positions: Positions available for 2019-2020 school year attached.
- Spirit Night Update: We have not received a spirit night check from Chili's; trying to get update.
- Volunteer Recognition Dinner: Discussed and decided we would be better served by sending Thank You emails to each volunteer for each specific event they volunteered for. Event Chairs/VPs will send lists to Rebecca, who will send notes out by end of April.
- Upcoming Events: 8th Grade Dance 3/15/19, Hollywood Theme, planning is coming along nicely.
- Reflections Update by Melinda Urbanawiz: TRMS had 2 reflections winners go to state (7th grader for photography and 6th grader for dance).
- Student Enrichment update by Natasha Powell: Building Character program will be pitched to Mr. Parker.
